

Midland Eating Disorders - Tairawhiti July/Sept 11

Project Recommendations / Findings for Follow Up	Related Project	Status	Whom Responsible	Objective Heading	Planned Completion Date	Progress Comments & Supporting Details
General practice providers have increased knowledge of eating disorders and their presentations	Midland Eating Disorders Strategic Plan 2009-2015	In progress	For local implementation	Primary	Present – 5 years	have discussed liaising with G.P providers once educational presentations have been delivered within the DHB
Primary care providers maintain clients with eating disorders at a local level		Completed	For local implementation	Primary	1-5 years	CAMHS regularly liaise with G.P mainly around medical monitoring
Public Health providers are including messages relating to eating disorders in their planning for service delivery		To commence	For local implementation	Primary	1-3 years	medium term planning within the next year
Primary health providers professional competence in working with clients with ED is increased		To commence	For local implementation	Primary	1-5 years	long tem planning
Educational authorities recognise the early signs of school aged children / young people with eating and nutritional issues including any issues relating to obesity		To commence	For local implementation	Primary	5 plus years	medium term planning
Kaupapa Maori primary health providers have increased knowledge and awareness of eating disorders within their populations		To commence	For local implementation	Primary	1-5 years	medium term planning - (an Eating disorder information pamphlet to be developed and made available in community through out General practitioner centres, school health centres, school guidance counsellors, social work in schools services.)
Pacific People's primary health providers have increased knowledge and awareness of eating disorders within their populations		To commence	For local implementation	Primary	1-5 years	medium term planning ( development of information pamphlet as stated in above)
Other identified ethnic groups are assisted in increasing their knowledge and awareness of eating disorders within their populations		To commence	For local implementation	Primary	5 -10 years	medium term planning (development of information pamphlet as stated in above)
Family and whanau have access to appropriate support groups where they can interact with others who have had similar experiences		Completed	For local implementation	Primary	2008 – 2009	provide families / whanau contacts for parent support groups such as EDANZ - Eating Disorders association of New Zealand
Clear clinical pathways exist within secondary specialist services between mental health services and adult and paediatric medical services across both inpatient and outpatient settings		In progress	For local implementation	Secondary	2008-2009	Clinical pathways documents in final stages of consultation
Family and whanau work in partnership with eating disorders professionals	Completed	For local implementation	Secondary	2008 - 2009	This is CAMHS service philosophy where it works for the client and family. CAMHS staff attended the Maudsley Family therapy training.
Clinical staff working with adults are trained in a range of treatment modalities for the management of clients with eating disorders	In progress	For local implementation	Secondary	2008 - 2009	CAMHS has begun discussion with Adult Mental Health services to assist accessing of training opportunities and provide Eating Disorder group supervision and mentoring.
All Midland region secondary specialist clinical staff with eating disorders expertise provide support to their local primary sector clinical and non clinical services staff to ensure pathways for care between primary and secondary services are	To commence	For local implementation	Secondary	5-10 years	long tem planning
Service users can access a wide range of services appropriate to their needs and to what resources are available		For local implementation	Secondary	2009-2010
Outpatient services are provided by multidisciplinary teams who have experience and skills in eating disorders work	Completed	For local implementation	Secondary	2008 - 2009	Multidisciplinary team is currently implemented as far as resource allows. Dietitian contracted as needed.
Across Midland there is increased focus on a workforce, with multiple competencies, that may include service users and whanau	Completed	For local implementation	Secondary	2010-2011	Training more CAMHS and Adult Mental Health staff members in Eating Disorder area	